Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF II and HEERF III)

Northwestern Technological Institute has received a Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF II and HEERF III) to provide emergency financial aid grants to students impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Per guidance from the federal government, NWTI is required to prioritize students with exceptional need, such as students who receive Pell Grants, in awarding financial aid grants to students.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be an enrolled active student as of 10/13/2021
- The 2020-2021 FAFSA Expected Family Contribution (EFC) will be used to determine the amount of the HEERF Grant; if a 2019-2020 or 2021-2022 FAFSA is on file, the 2019-2020 or 2021-2022 EFC will be used. If there is no FAFSA on file, students will fall under Group 3.

	GROUP 1	GROUP 2	GROUP 3
	EFC = 0	EFC = 1 to 5846	EFC = 5847 + or No FAFSA on File
HEERF Grant Amount	$650	$500	$314.60

Process for Awarding:

- The HEERF grant will be paid directly to students on October 18, 2021 (Monday) via paper check.
- By accepting the HEERF grant, students are acknowledging that they have a need for these funds to help with any component of their cost of attendance or for emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health), child care, etc.
- The HEERF grant can also be used to pay a student's outstanding account balance. By signing a HEERF Grant Authorization Form, the full amount of the grant will be applied to the student's account. Please see Financial Aid/Billing Department for more information.

Additional Notes:

- Some Bank of America branches are being overcautious in cashing the HEERF checks – please avoid going to: (1) Grand River Ave. in Detroit, (2) Greenfield Rd. in Southfield, (3) Adams Rd. in Auburn Hills. Please contact Monika Lapina at (248) 358-2477 if you are having any issues with your check.
- You have 90 days to cash your HEERF check. Any checks that remain uncashed after 90 days will be voided.

Attachment B
